Brad Griffith

Executive Vice President: Chemicals

Mr Brad Griffith is Executive Vice President, Chemicals, based in Houston, Texas, United States and is responsible for Sasol's Chemicals Business globally. Brad is positioned to lead a diverse and global team that connects Sasol's unique chemistry with customers and partners to create value and develop innovative solutions for a sustainable world.

He is responsible for maintaining safe, reliable and sustainable operations across multiple geographies, driving customer-led growth through innovative marketing and product development and extending sales. Brad was appointed to the Group Executive Committee in November 2019. Prior to this appointment he was Senior Vice President for Sasol's Performance Chemicals business from 2017 to 2019 and Base Chemicals business from 2014 to 2017. His Sasol career began as an Engineer with Vista Chemicals/Condea (later acquired by Sasol) in Lake Charles, Louisiana, United States. During his nearly 30 year career with the Group he has held various positions and leadership roles in the United States, Europe and South Africa.

He is a Director of several companies in the Sasol Group and has served as a Board member of both the South African Chemical & Allied Industries' Association and American Chemistry Council.

He endorses Sasol's group-wide stakeholder focus, including overseeing relationships with several key external stakeholders, customers and industry trade associations.
